

Mr. Jordan

Here we go again. I came across to a recent email that Mr. Banciella has circulated to members of MoveOn.Org. He still has not filed a campaign financial report and I have no idea who and how he is funding his campaign. This is in direct violation of the confidence of the voters. Additionally it is obvious that he is still in violation of election law.

Please add this email to your records as further evidence that Mr. Banciella is actively fundraising and campaigning for US House Florida 18.

If I can be of any further assistance please do not hesitate to let me know.

Subject: I'm counting on you

Dear MoveOn member,

MoveOn members in Florida's 18th District have voted to endorse Rolando Banciella for Congress. It's up to all of us to stop the corporate takeover of Congress—you can volunteer with the campaign here:

Below is a special message for you from Rolando Banciella.

Thanks for all you do.

—Steven, Anna, Duncan, Adam, Carrie, and the rest of the team

Dear MoveOn.org member:

My name is Rolando A. Banciella, and I am running for the 18th congressional district of Florida. I am running against Ileana Ros-Lehtinen. She has been a member of congress for over 20 years. She is a loyal member of the "Party of No". She is for blocking anything and everything that could improve the economy or the country.

Ileana Ros-Lehtinen received over $85,000 in the first 90 days of her current term. I believe that to fight corruption, we have to make it illegal for any member of congress to accept contributions prior to qualifying for reelection. I am for term limits because, I believe congress should be elected to do a job and then get out, not make it a career. I am for saving Social Security because it's too important to privatize. I am also for same-sex marriage and for the "Public Option" because it's a good way to lower health costs. And I have a Jobs program that will create millions of jobs and not cost a penny to the taxpayers or their children.

I am humbly asking for your help. As you may know, running for congress requires a significant amount of money. I am trying to raise $300,000 by receiving small contributions of just $5.00 to $10.00.

I am asking for just $5.00 to $10.00 because, it's a small contribution that most American can afford to make. I have taken a pledge to fight corruption in Washington. And I have also pledged, that if I raise $100,000 from small contributions of $100.00 or less, I will do the following:

1. Agree not to accept any more contributions greater than $100.
2. Agree not to accept contributions from any lobbies or corporations.
3. Agree, if elected, not to accept any contributions from the moment I take the congressional oath to after qualifying for re-elections (qualifying period is last week of April of 2012).
4. Agree not to accept any contributions after qualifying for reelection (if I decide to run for reelection) before giving small contributors the opportunity to continue their support.

I will not be influenced by lobbies, corporations or big donors - I will represent the people.

So please take the time right now and make a contribution of just $5.00 to $10.00 and tell your friends to do the same. And come November, I need your vote and your neighbors vote so, please let them know. Help me get Ileana out of Congress.

Thank you,

Rolando A. Banciella Democratic Nominee Florida's 18th district
